

I Have a Mansion in the Post-apocalyptic World Comics Chapter 1 To 5

Chapter 1

A drop of cold sweat slipped across Jiang Chen's forehead and swallowed his spit with difficulty. He looked at the weapon shaking in front of him.

At least 36 days....

under the willow eyebrows is a pair of heroic Phoenix eyes. If the high nose and cherry mouth were not for the bad expression, they would be a beauty. A black pistol and a cold whip... If there are some ambiguous decorations around, I'm afraid that no man in the world will not dream of what happened here...

wish for a fart!

Jiang Chen's heart at the moment in addition to regret, there is only fear, a little bit of physical excitement is not... Eh, how to feel a little small pants, this must be an illusion. How can I be shaking!

First of all, Jiang Chen does not have any special hobbies. The reason why she is firmly tied to the chair by this beautiful woman with a whip at the moment is totally accidental...

"name?" The big breasted woman in a black leather jacket and old white jeans lifted her long, slightly messy hair from her lower shoulder and stepped rudely on the arm of the chair.

"Jiang Chen..." swallows the mouth to spit, Jiang Chen honestly explained the name. He has never seen such a civilized beauty.

That beautiful woman's eyebrow picked pick, "name how this Niang gun?"

You go and ask my mom, fuck! Of course, he was afraid that if he said this, he would get a hole in his head with the gun in her hand.

Yes, this creature has a gun in his hand! The atmosphere was not so good for a moment.

"... my mother gave birth to me in the morning." Jiang Chen murmured. To be honest, this name is not very Niang, just because his appearance is just that kind of delicate type... Even if you put a man's name, it will only feel very inconsistent.

"Don't interrupt," the beauty held the whip flowing down the leather sofa on one side. The crackle made Jiang Chen shrink back. "I'm not interested in your mother."

Lying trough, you asked! Jiang Chen's face was livid, and he cursed in his heart.

"You have the potential." The beauty chuckled, and suddenly came close to touch Jiang Chen's side face with her whip. "I'll ask you what you'll answer. If you dare to lie, I don't recommend drawing some ugly cuts on your face."

Jiang Chen's face turned pigliver.

Lying trough, how do I feel like a woman to be QJ.

"Where are you from?" The beauty narrowed her eyes and asked in a deep voice.

"I'm from the north." Jiang Chen lied casually. Naturally, he would not believe that the girl could see through his secret. Wanghai city? This is Wanghai City, too? This crappy place?

"Where did you get this... Co La?" The beautiful woman's pronunciation is very astringent, as if she had never heard of coke.

Jiang Chen feels that the tone of the beauty is more and more urgent, and the tone seems to be full of greed?

"Coke... A carbonated drink."

"Nonsense! Of course I know it's carbonated drink. I asked you, where did you come from? " The beauty was very domineering to hold the cola, and then poured out her breath freely. She threw the empty can on the ground. Then she grasped the whip and pulled it hard on the sofa.

Jiang Chen watched the strange looking gun against his forehead.

A drop of cold sweat slipped across his forehead again. Jiang Chen slowly resumed his restless breathing and tried to calm himself down.

"I can't explain."

"Do you want to die?"

"Is that what you do to the Savior?" I don't know where Jiang Chen's courage came from. He went back with his words.

the beauty fell into silence. After half payment, she sighed, pinned the gun to her waist and threw away the whip she had picked up.

"Well... Maybe I did go a little too far." Although the mouth said so, but she still did not lift Jiang Chen body binding plan.

Just now she has been smoking the sofa, indicating that her nature may not be the kind of villain? Jiang Chen bravely guessed.

"... believe me, I mean it well." Jiang Chen is not sure that conscience is enough to make this scorpion beauty hesitant for how long, he has to lie casually.

"Well meaning?"

"It's like saving you from starvation. If I say anything today, I'm afraid the future will not be too good for you and me. " Jiang Chen continues to use mysterious tone to say, his words left her a lot of imagination space.

"Ha ha." Although the beauty had some disdainful smile, the hesitation in her eyes was very obvious.

"Maybe we can cooperate. I just got here. Well, how to say it, everything is terrible. I need a tour guide... And I can pay you a big reward for that. " Jiang Chen grasped the speed of his speech and dropped a carrot."Oh? Are you from the United States of the north? " The beauty picked her eyebrows.

If there is still a little bit of order on this piece of waste soil, it is probably the United area established on the remote northern grassland. Because there was almost no nuclear attack and no outbreak of infection, there was a stable order there.

However, stability is only relatively speaking, slavery, exploitation and scuffle. In addition to the slightly higher food production there, it is no better than the disorderly Wanghai city.

"No, I'm just from a better off place... Well, collect something useful for someone. By the way, it's a little bit redundant for us to get rid of... Like the soda you drank, and the three cans you licked clean. " Jiang Chen doesn't dare to answer. He claims to be from the United States. He has never been there at all. What should he do if he is exposed.

At this point, the best way is to make sure that you are from a special place. No one has ever been to this place. Jiang Chen is totally left to his own nonsense.

Hearing "licking clean", the beauty's face immediately turned red. She seemed to realize that her eating style was not very elegant at that time, so she glared at Jiang Chen fiercely. Jiang Chen smiles and says he doesn't care. He knows that the negotiation is basically successful.

"I don't know what is worth your scheming in this place. The supermarkets, granaries and even the refrigerators of private houses in Wanghai city have been emptied. Even a piece of bread can't be found..."

"what's your name, Miss beautiful?" Jiang Chen shook his head and asked with a smile.

"Sun Jiao." Sun Jiao raised her eyebrows and said with a meaningful smile. "I have stated in advance that if the so-called cooperation includes some abnormal services, I may be in your head..."

"you think too much, Miss Sun Jiao." Jiang Chen sighed, saying that he would never go to bed with a female tiger that might bite him off at any time. "All I need is an experienced tour guide... And do you think I'm short of food?"

"What are you looking for? Are they... Slaves? " Suddenly, sun Jiao's face changed, looking at Jiang Chen's eyes instantly became bad.

Yes, since there is no shortage of food, there are farms or plantations and other related production facilities. Sun Jiao's first reaction is that this guy may be a human trafficker, and slaves are the best labor force in the waste land. It's normal to buy and sell people on the waste land. However, sun Jiao is deeply disgusted with this, because she is afraid that her sister has been sold by human traffickers, and she doesn't know where she has been sold. If it's sold to a factory, it's OK, but if it's sold to a brothel or cannibal tribe... It's a nightmare.

"No, no, no, you misunderstood me." Jiang Chen quickly explained, "we don't need slaves... I need technology."

"Technology?" Sun Jiao was stunned.

"Yes, like the laser gun in your hand and the computer in your arm? ... we had these things, but we couldn't make them on our own, so we decided to come to this abandoned city and look for the technology of the old order. "

"Those things?" Sun Jiao is obviously Leng Leng Leng, immediately some doubt ground looked at Jiang Chen, "this kind of thing is very difficult to do? A lot of people in Liuding can assemble this thing. "

Oh, No. Jiang Chen murmured, but his face was still nothing.

"I'm just going to give you an example. Our technology is relatively advanced in food production and logistics, but relatively... Er, general technology may be slightly inferior, which is why I'm here." He didn't blush when he lied. Jiang Chen began to admire his acting skills like a film emperor.

He has noticed that although the world once had high-end technology, civilization has declined after nuclear war, and then zombie virus is encountered. It is a miracle that the whole human world has not been completely destroyed.

One word can be used to describe the present situation of this piece of waste soil: the good and the bad are not even.

It can be seen from the coexistence of high-tech suspension cars and axle driven diesel locomotives on the streets.

"Whatever you want," Sun Jiao gave up and continued to ask. She turned her head and looked at Jiang Chen with interest for a long time. Then she said, "well, it's time for us to talk about my reward."

"What would you like to pay for?" After pondering for a moment, Jiang Chen asked. He really doesn't know what currency is in circulation in the world.

"Model C battery, food, sub crystal, all OK, but I prefer food." Sun Jiao said, fragrant tongue gently licked the next red lip, pause to continue to open a way, "by the way, that kind of... Er, curry chicken can you still have?"

"You've eaten it all." Jiang Chen sighed and pretended to be distressed. He had never seen any batteries or sub crystals, so it was most suitable to use food as a reward.

"Er, I'm sorry," Sun Jiao scratched her head awkwardly, but her face soon returned to that vicious expression. She stepped on the armrest and took advantage of it unkindly. "The reward is 10 cans a month. Tube, tube rice"Deal."

However, Jiang Chen's frankness made sun Jiao feel some unnatural guilt. Although in this piece of waste land, only Sha Bi can have conscience, but it has to be said that the conscience hidden in the heart of people still exists.

Fierce, just a protective color.

"... I will take care of your safety." Sun Jiao coughed and added slightly with a sense of guilt.

Nonsense, if I die, who pays you. Jiang Chen maliciously in the heart abdominal Fei way. Although this cost is nothing to him, it also has a hundred dollars to spend.

"Then, my beautiful bodyguard, can you untie my rope?" The crisis was finally lifted. Jiang Chen, who was relaxed, was relieved. His limbs were almost bound to lose consciousness.

Sun Jiao is very skillful from the waist to touch a dagger, Shua Shua two cut off the rope tightly bound to Jiang Chen.

After a slight movement, she gradually regained consciousness. Jiang Chen glanced at Sun Jiao and picked up her backpack.

Sun Jiao blushed with embarrassment and laughed, whistling and leaving the matter behind.

"What's next? Get out of here? "

"Leave? Why, this is our meeting place for the time being. "

Outside the window, the steel and cement city has lost its vitality. There were no pedestrians in the busy street. Instead, there were endless zombies.

Occasionally, unknown alien monsters gnawed at the dead bodies and howled like Lords. In the distance, you can hear the small gunfire. In this city full of death, there is a battle of deja vu every day. People and monsters, people to people...

through the stained glass window, Jiang Chen saw danger, death, and gold everywhere.

Chapter 2

The universe is pluralistic.

A butterfly in the Amazon jungle flapping its wings inadvertently may cause a tornado in Texas in two weeks. That is to say, any slight change may produce enough influence to change the future trend after unlimited amplification.

In other words, the future we understand is extremely unstable.

Jiang Chen, male, 23 years old, graduated from university. After graduation, I worked as a salesman in a clothing store, but I was dismissed. With his shrinking wallet, he has to face a dilemma: whether to stay in Wanghai city to find a job, or to return his rental house to his hometown?

To be honest, he didn't want to run back like this. To live in such a metropolis as Wanghai city is not only his long cherished wish since childhood, but also the expectation of his parents. Who have not seen the world, how many do not want to go out to see the world?

Even if you know it for a long time, the reality may turn you down.

That night, he was drunk. It was the first time since he graduated that he had drunk alone. He was unconscious. Just after venting his pent up bowels, he felt vaguely that his head had been whipped by something, and the whole person fainted. After hitting his wrist, the unknown metal object disappeared as if it had merged with him.

Then, he got a fantastic ability - through!

Of course, the ability to detect this anomaly is months later.

The strange tattoo is like a watch around his right wrist. Even if we look closely, we can only conclude that it is a strange tattoo.

So the question is, Jiang Chen has never had a tattoo?

He didn't know why the person who was elected was himself. He only knew that his chance to reach the peak of his life might come.

Time travel? Plane transition? He doesn't have enough expertise to explain this extraordinary phenomenon. It was just because of an accidental electric shock, but nothing happened. After absorbing about 100 degrees of electric energy, his wrists will be filled with tattoo like empty slots, which can meet the requirements of "crossing". One pass consumes about half of the energy tank, which means that 100 degrees of electricity is enough for a round trip. The cost of crossing is only about 50 yuan, which is too cheap.

In addition, the function of this weird tattoo is more than just crossing. Jiang Chen inadvertently found that this thing can make him go to a strange world, but also has an independent sub space! Generally speaking, it is a storage space of about 1 cubic meter. However, due to the need to consume a certain amount of energy to store and retrieve objects from the space, Jiang Chen still chose to carry the items in his backpack for crossing. After all, if you don't save the energy in the energy tank, if you can't find a way to replenish energy in the end of the world, won't you come back?

Jiang Chen has a premonition that this energy tank should be able to be upgraded, including the storage space. There should be some expansion space, but he has not yet figured out how to upgrade.

As for how to charge? The method is very simple, just put your right finger into the socket... This method is rough, but it works. As for how Jiang Chen discovered this method, it was completely due to an accidental electric shock.

The first time I passed through was in an abandoned house. From the dusty bed and rotten wooden window sill, we can see that this room has not been visited for a long time. After carefully confirming the environment, Jiang Chen began to explore the dilapidated house. From the half damaged radio with storage function and old newspapers, Jiang Chen barely learned some information about the world.

This is a parallel world similar to the earth, but technology is obviously ahead of Jiang Chen. There are many high-rise buildings, but there is no trace of civilization. The streets are full of zombies and xenobiotics. Jiang Chen, who has no reliable weapons, is afraid to go out easily.

The time is 2190, and the location is still Wanghai City, the Republic of China. However, the Wanghai city here is almost the same as the Wanghai city on the other side of Jiangchen.

In 2150, with global warming, all kinds of resources were extremely tense due to over exploitation, and the economic crisis came as scheduled.

In 2164, the political crisis in Poland ignited the powder keg of central Europe, and the red regime began to march westward. Affected by this, global geopolitics has entered a state of extreme tension. It is worth mentioning that in this parallel world, there was no collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991. Therefore, the world political structure is divided into three polar worlds: NATO military body (NATO) composed of the United States and its allies, the Soviet LED red regime in Central Asia and Europe (CCCP), the Pan Asian Cooperation Organization (PCA) composed of China and South Asian countries, and some marginal countries remain neutral.

In 2171, the situation in China and Europe escalated, and the red regime declared war on the blue regime. Both sides accused the other party of firing the first shot, thus opening the curtain of the Third World War.

In the winter of the same year, the South China Sea incident broke out. China and Japan had a naval war in the South China Sea. NATO declared war on Pan Asian cooperation and opened the Asian battlefield. In the same year, a political crisis broke out in Mongolia, and the red regime had military friction with China, forcing a large number of military forces of the two countries to confront each other on the border. In 2172, the red regime detonated its first nuclear bomb in Paris, declaring the third world war a nuclear war.

In 2173, the modern war fell into an unexpected standoff. The whole world has suffered from the impact of nuclear radiation, the ecological environment has been uncontrollably destroyed. Nuclear winter makes 80% of the earth's land covered with ice and snow. No one expected that global warming would come to an end for such a very ironic reason. War, famine, disease... This modern world war, in only two years, almost exhausted all the vitality of human civilization, causing economic losses far more than the sum of World War I and World War II. It is for this reason that peace has come naturally without winning or losing. Because everyone knows that if we fight again, no one will survive.

In the new year of 2174, the peace treaty came into force. The "biosphere reconstruction" program was officially launched, and the radiation removal program was jointly funded by all countries.

In the autumn of 2174, the International Joint Organization declared that the "reconstruction of the biosphere" plan was aborted. The radiation induced uncontrollable variation of the radiation purifying bacteria under development. At the same time, due to the attack of unknown armed forces, the mutant bacteria spread in the city on a large scale. People infected by mutated bacteria will become zombies and global biochemical crisis will break out. All institutions were paralyzed, and all order collapsed overnight.

in 2176, the United World Organization launched six colonial ships to the planet Kaptan B in Centaurus. It carries the hope of human civilization and sails to space in the name of a seedboat to find a new home. But none of this has anything to do with the people who are still struggling on the ground.

In the same year, the World Federation was dissolved.

The information recorded in the newspaper only lasted until 2176, and most of the rest was read from a yellowing diary. From the electronic watch still running in the drawer, it can be concluded that the current time point is June 2190.

Coincidentally, this time of life is also June.

However, in a short period of five years, human civilization in this world line has personally buried itself.

after a short stay, Jiang Chen chose to return to modern times. There are too many unknown dangers here. It is not a wise choice to explore without complete preparation.

Back in modern times, Jiang Chen had a rest for two days, and then bought a box of cans, a box of ham and a box of instant noodles from a nearby supermarket. As a matter of caution, even though he did not intend to spend the night in that dangerous place, he carried food for three days.

The strength of zombies in the daytime seems to have been greatly weakened, which also facilitates Jiang Chen to explore this area. Walking carefully through the middle of the street and avoiding the area where there are many zombies, Jiang Chen finds the villa...

the tall courtyard wall and iron gate look very safe, and the Yellow vegetation in the courtyard looks rather bleak. The relief on the marble column beside the door of the main building of the villa has been blurred by acid rain. It can be seen that the pollution of the world should be very serious.

The stone structure of the building is not sci-fi color, it can be seen that the former owner of the villa seems to be a rich man who can enjoy life very much.

As for why we choose to explore this villa, the answer is obvious, the rich people's home must put some valuable things?

However, what Jiang Chen met was not something valuable, but a beautiful woman who was almost starving to death.

Maybe he was paralyzed by beauty, or maybe Jiang Chen from civilized society didn't think about the danger at all. In a word, when he saw the beauty who had no strength to breathe looked at him with pleading eyes, he generously took out a bottle of mineral spring water from his knapsack and put it to the beauty's mouth. He was very kind to feed her to drink.

It's important to save people... Hey hey, will she promise me? Cough.

Then Jiang Chen took out the can of chicken curry. After smelling the can, the beauty still looked at Jiang Chen with her big, watery eyes. Being looked at with such eyes by a beautiful woman is a kind of unspeakable enjoyment both mentally and physically for the virgin Jiang Chen.

So Jiang Chen took out the spoon and fed the hot legged beauty little by little with the delicious food in the tin.

And then... No, then.

Then Jiang Chen regretfully wanted to slap his face.

The beautiful woman's action perfectly interprets the story of farmer and snake.

After a can and several steamed buns, the beauty pulled out the pistol from her waist without saying a word and put it against Jiang Chen's forehead. When Jiang Chen was completely stupid and didn't respond, she had tied him to the stool skillfully, and took out the villa's original owner's... Er, it should be the spice supplies - leather whip. He began to interrogate Jiang Chen.

By now, Jiang Chen has probably realized what it means to walk on the street with a backpack of food on his back.

Fortunately, what she met was Miss Sun Jiao, who was more or less conscientious. If she met any villains like cannibals and slavers, she would be bound into rice dumplings as food or commodities. Of course, Jiang Chen can also choose to activate the tattoo on his wrist and transmit it back to modern times. But in this case, it means that his biggest secret has been revealed. Once this woman "guards the corpse", he will have to face greater danger.

He is not willing to give up this "treasure land".

Besides, it takes time to activate the traversal function. Once this crazy woman finds something wrong, she won't shoot directly.

Jiang Chen didn't want to take the risk, but now he has reached a cooperative relationship with this woman.

"Hello, I said, how are you going to transport the living materials here Sun Jiao while strengthening the villa defense weak area, while puzzled to ask.

"My companion certainly has a way. You don't have to worry about it." Jiang Chen continues to lie.

There are many banknotes in this villa, but the banknotes in this world are quite different from those in Jiangchen's original world. Jiang Chen wanted to go to look for some valuable gold and other things, but the owner of this villa obviously didn't put those valuable things at home.

The murals hanging on the wall may be valuable, but those great painters are afraid that there is no such thing as Jiangchen. It is obviously impossible to exchange these works of art for money. The most advanced villas in Jiangchen show great interest. However, when she found that the holographic TV and automatic cooking equipment could not start normally, sun Jiao simply gave the reason.

"Ah, you said those things... After the nuclear explosion, most of the electronic equipment can't be used. However, if you take down the key components, you can still exchange a small amount of useful things in many

survivors' bases

Hearing this, Jiang Chen sighed and had to give up the plan to move the equipment to modern.

But since these things exist, it means that someone must be able to make them again. Jiang Chen believes that if food is exchanged, there must be many "elites" in the world who are willing to work for him. After all, in this end of the world, those luxury civilian technologies are too worthless.

The weak technicians, if not those who have mastered the high-end technology of making weapons, will have to face the fate of living in the slums.

Sun Jiao doesn't know where Jiang Chen has taken a fancy to this villa, but since her employer has asked her to work, she will not refuse.

"To be frank, it doesn't make sense to reinforce this building. As long as you don't make too much noise, those brainless zombies can't touch in at all. There are no powerful mutants in this area. You do this simply...

"OK, I'm not guarding against zombies. I also know that as long as they don't provoke those disgusting guys, they won't come and provoke me. I'm trying to keep the uninvited out of the way, okay? You don't want to get your neck wiped while you sleep. We need to stay in the city for a while and this will be our supply point. " At the same time, Jiang Chen glared at Sun Jiao fiercely.

"Good boss," Sun Jiao rolled her eyes and nailed the last nail on the board. In fact, she wanted to retort that no one would ever touch into such an apparently looted building.

As for why she's here... That's her secret.

"Do you have a map around here?" Sitting on a moldy sofa with two legs up, Jiang Chen has no sense of guilt for letting this beauty do coolie. The girl almost had a torture to him just now. It was not good to be pointed at by a gun.

Sun Jiao is obviously very skilled in this kind of work, and soon the first floor of this villa has come to a comprehensive reinforcement. As for the transformation materials, they are all based on local materials...

"what about your epaid? I can pass it directly to you. "

“epaid ?” Jiang Chen was stunned.

"That's it," Sun Jiao tapped the wrist computer tied to her arm with her finger, grinning as if she had heard some funny joke. "You don't have it?"

"... I can buy it." Jiang Chen smiles and touches his nose. He feels like a primitive man in front of this girl.

"It's hard to imagine... You dare to explore the city without EP. Are you not afraid that your body's radiation index exceeds the standard Sun Jiao sighed, from the back of the portable backpack out of the same thing as a large electronic watch thrown to Jiang Chen, "try on."

"It seems to fit... Where did you get it?" Jiang Chen fiddled with it and was surprised at the development of science and technology in the world. This is called EP. It's very light to wear on your hand, and it doesn't hurt at all. Jiang Chen's physiological indicators are displayed on the yellow fluorescent screen, which seems to be a health monitoring device.

"From the body of an unfortunate fellow." Sun Jiao's mouth grinned. The smile was very sunny, but Jiang Chen couldn't help shivering.

when the radiation value was seen, Jiang Chen slipped a drop of cold sweat before his forehead. He almost forgot that the world was full of radiation. If he stayed here for a long time, he would be finished sooner or later. He didn't know what the radiation value of 11 meant. He only knew that he could not be exposed to radiation before he came to this ghost place!

"Oh, no more than 20 abilities... I said, are you really a man?" Sun Jiao glanced maliciously at the lower body of Yan Jiang Chen.

"Would you like to try it?" Said the morning maliciously.

"I'm standing here. Would you like to have a try?" Sun Jiao domineering full of a leather boot stepped on the armrest of the sofa, eyes full of provocative looking at Jiang Chen.

Lying trough, can this be tolerated? When will it be better?

... or when.

Jiang Chen resolutely acknowledged the advice.

You're joking, whether you can beat a barbarian or not. Even if I can fight (impossible), I'm afraid when I do that, I still have to watch out for the girl biting her own bird. Jiang Chen believes that sun Jiao can really do such a thing.

That kind of happy thing or go back to modern times to do more insurance, have money still afraid of no woman?

For some reason, Jiang Chen suddenly thought of a man, the woman who expelled him, the woman who almost lost his financial resources and made him almost unable to live in Wanghai City, and the woman who always had a cold face...

"why, my little boss, why didn't he speak suddenly?" Sun Jiao bit the word Xiao very heavily and looked at Jiang Chen's eyes with playful eyes.

"It's nothing. I remember something from the past."

Sun Jiao slightly a Leng, that insipid tone unexpectedly let her feel a trace of chill. Although she doesn't think that this man with no more than 20 fighting capacity can pose any threat to her, the intuition of danger that has been exercised by wandering on the edge of life and death for years is rarely lying.

Sun Jiao shut her mouth wisely.

There is no need to offend a free meal ticket. She can have enough every day, which was never thought of by Miss Sun Jiao before. The taste of chicken curry was amazing. It was the first time that she found such delicious food in the world. In this piece of waste soil, it is a very happy thing to have a piece of steamed bread to eat. Oh, no, most people still feed on nutrient mixtures. That kind of stuff that can't eat enough but can't die of hunger.

In addition, the immature boss seems to be a good man...

don't get me wrong. The word "good man" is definitely a derogatory term in waste land. But I don't know why, although she said that, she was more willing to get along with this "bad man" than those "normal people" who could be seen everywhere on the waste soil. At least, when I wake up, I don't have to wake up.

Think of here, sun Jiao that some dry red lips, can not help but outline a faint smile.

"I said, do you want to smile so creepy..." I don't know why, sun Jiao's smile is very beautiful, but let Jiang Chen fight a cold shiver.

"Did you? Don't you think my sister is charming when she smiles? "

"I should answer yes, or not..." looking at the gorgeous face, Jiang Chen swallowed his mouth and muttered in a low voice.

Chapter 3

The next morning, sun Jiao was sent by Jiang Chen to explore the commercial bank building in Qingpu. As for sun Jiao's questions about the bank that can be investigated, Jiang Chen just gave a very straightforward answer.

"I need gold there."

The world is full of treasures, those high-tech civilian equipment, take one of them to the world, I'm afraid it will explode the things that are still in the laboratory. However, it is obviously unrealistic to sell these high-tech products directly to the world. In this way, gold is the only one with high value and easy realization!

Jiang Chen speculated that gold should be of little value to this disorderly end of life. In the case of all people are not enough to eat, no one will exchange the grain in their hands for those glittering things.

Obviously he was right.

Although sun Jiao wanted to know what gold had to do with it, Jiang Chen had no intention to disclose it, so she had to give up questioning.

There was also an episode in the morning.

After getting up, when Jiang Chen hands a piece of bread to sun Jiao, sun jiaofei quickly grabs the bread and stares at Jiang Chen's eyes with very vigilant eyes.

"Come on, what are your intentions?"

"Attempt? Didn't you say I was in charge of the meal? " Jiang Chen gave her a white look. Joke, I haven't got enough sperm to go to sleep with you. If you have money, go back to modern sleep. Ten models don't sleep? If you want to go to bed with a female tiger who may bite off her Ding Ding at any time, it's absolutely a brain problem.

"Take care of the meal?" Sun Jiao didn't respond for a while, and then suddenly remembered the reward that had been negotiated yesterday.

"Breakfast. Three meals a day, but most of you have to eat out at noon. I'll bring you another can. " Although the backpack has been turned over by the woman, there is still a little spare grain in the storage space. There is still plenty to take out one or two cans with the current energy.

Sun Jiao Leng Leng Leng, eyes do not know why some inexplicable fever. She has seen many villains who kill their compatriots for food in the waste soil, and met cannibal bandits who want to stew her into twice cooked pork. However, your support is still the driving force for me to write the remaining two million words!

Chapter 4

When the feet are on the precious wooden floor covered with dust, it is only a moment for Jiang Chen.

After checking the energy bar at the lower wrist, Jiang Chen is stunned. The energy consumed by this crossing is only 40%.

Will the capacity of the energy bar upgrade with the number of charges?

Jiang Chen shook his head, which is undoubtedly good news, but his knowledge is certainly not enough to explain this phenomenon. Just think of it like this.

Sitting quietly on a high-end sofa, Jiang Chen enjoys the luxury that is hard to have in this world, lights a cigarette and waits for the passage of time.

Through the moldy wooden window, Jiang Chen saw the shadow of sun Jiao coming from the street. After taking out the telescope on one side for confirmation, Jiang Chen got up and went downstairs to open the door of the villa and let Sun Jiao in.

"The gold you want," he took the bag from sun Jiao. Jiang Chen's hands sank slightly, but his heart was happy. The weight was not light, just a few kilograms. However, this several kilogram weight gold unexpectedly was thrown by this woman to the paper ball easily, this strength is really some frightening.

Jiang Chen takes an eye at her arm, the thin line can hardly find the curve of muscle.

"I'm so tired. There are zombies everywhere in the bank hall. I nearly emptied the ammunition of my two batteries before I cleaned up those disgusting things. The bank vault was sealed with thick steel plates and I couldn't open it. I found these gold bars from a room called VIP room

Sun Jiao wiped the sweat in front of her forehead and then threw her backpack on her back to one side. Although there is not much gold, but there is also a few kilos, including the weapons and supplies, sun Jiao is almost carrying 20 kg in the long distance. There is still some distance from the bank.

"Then."

"Well? This is..." Sun Jiao took the coke thrown by Jiang Chen and looked at it stupidly.

"I think you like it." Being looked at by the beauty like this, Jiang Chen began to feel a little embarrassed, so he said with a smile.

She sipped her lips slightly, but Sun Jiao didn't say anything. She just kept silent for a short time. She resumed her heroic posture, opened the can and took a sip of coke in her hand.

"Gulu Gulu... Ha! Cool! It's really hot to help you to transport gold outside in this terrible weather. Why, or ice? " Sun Jiao glanced at Jiang Chen suspiciously.

"The refrigerator in the kitchen is still working, and the solar power equipment in this villa is surprisingly intact." Jiang Chen didn't lie. Although most of the electrical appliances were damaged by EMP, the solar power generation device on the roof of the villa unexpectedly survived. The refrigerator is also good.

Maybe someone once lived here and repaired some of the electrical appliances. But judging from the thickness of the dust on the ground, it was a long time ago.

"Forget it. If you ask where you got it, you won't tell me." Sun Jiao gave up and waved her hand and threw the empty can on the ground. "So, what's next? If you want to blow up the vault and transport the gold here, I'm afraid you need professional help. At least... We need powerful explosives, or skilled hackers, to crack electronic locks. "

"Where can I find these two things?" Explosives are not easy to deal with. It is convenient to buy food in a harmonious society, but it is basically impossible to make such prohibited goods. After all, Jiang Chen's identity is just a small citizen. After thinking for a moment, Jiang Chen asked.

"There are many survivors' bases, such as Liuding Town," Sun Jiao looked nostalgic, and her eyes floated out of the window. "That's a more interesting place on this piece of waste soil..."

"is it far from here?"

"Not too far, but a little expensive." Sun Jiao squinted at her beautiful eyes. "In addition to the local people who own 'real estate' and 'labor' who have lost their freedom, tourists need to pay a little sub crystal of energy unit to enter, or other equivalent."

"1 point subcrystalline?" Jiang Chen frowned suspiciously.

"This is it." Sun Jiao casually took out a piece of green black crystal from her pocket, "the content of this sub crystal is about 37 points, which can be detected with epaid. It's a tough thing to do, because only powerful mutants coagulate this crystal in the back of the brain. If possible, I really don't want to meet those guys..."

monsters that make this guy feel scared? Jiang Chen feels terrible when he thinks about it.

After receiving this black crystal, a sense of energy pulling came from the right hand. Jiang Chen has a huge shock in his heart. How can this thing charge the bracelet?!

However, Jiang Chen didn't show anything on her face. She just casually played with ya Jing in her hand and gave it back to sun Jiao.

"What can be exchanged for a single subcrystalline?"

"One tenth of a box of meat or half a box of poor quality cans, 10 nutrient mixtures, one C-type battery, or three energy weapon cartridges. There are so many things that can be exchanged. This kind of energy material can be used as currency in many survivors' bases. You can even sleep with a woman in Liuding Sun Jiao glanced at Jiang Chen with some joking eyes, teasing the little man made her have a kind of unspeakable pleasure."Keke, 37 sub crystal, how about 4 cans for you?"

"Deal." Sun Jiao did not hesitate to throw Yajing back to Jiang Chen's hand, but as if she thought of something, she sighed and hesitated to add, "if you want me to say, although I know you have a lot of food, it's definitely a loss. In the future, if you trade with others like this, you will surely be punished as a big loser... "

" Oh? " Jiang Chen shrugged his shoulders in disapproval, but he didn't care much about the change of the three sub crystal points.

"Although the 10 o'clock sub crystal is worth a can, it depends on what kind of can it is... Most of the canned food in Liuding town is the meat of mutant fish, and many of them are mixed with sand. However, this is the best situation... You know, some cans contain even human flesh...

the helplessness and numbness in the words let Jiang Chen feel a burst of suffocation. After swallowing and spitting, he was speechless for a long time.

"Curry chicken nuggets, braised beef... It's the first time I've tasted these delicacies in my life," Sun Jiao said, taking a meaningful look at Jiang Chen and then looking away. "Merchants on the waste soil usually use mutant cattle to ship goods. I was lucky to have a meal of beef from mutant cattle. I'm very satisfied with the dry taste. "

"I believe you." Jiang Chen's voice is very light.

He suddenly felt some fear. For sun Jiao, he was the first five dregs. If she peeps at her "wealth", she is afraid that she can solve herself in a moment.

Believe it? Jiang Chen now only dares to a trace of creepy fear. He even had the idea of taking gold and sending it back to modern times, leaving everything here behind, regardless of whether his life was in the end or not. These kilos of gold are enough for him to live as a millionaire.

He understood at the moment that he thought the world was too simple.

However, it may be because of greed, or because of inexplicable conceit. After a battle between man and nature, Jiang Chen finally calmed down and suppressed the idea of escape in the bottom of his heart.

There was no performance on his face. Jiang Chen tried to make himself look less afraid.

"Believe it?" Miss sun Jiao sneered, but the indescribable touch under her brow could not be hidden. However, this distant word has already disappeared in the waste soil full of hunger and death. At the moment, although Jiang Chen opened his mouth to say this fascinating word, sun Jiao's facial muscles just instinctively expressed disdain.

With a sigh, sun Jiao went to the kitchen.

"Your naivety is really disturbing... But I don't hate it."

"Hearing sun Jiao say so, Jiang Chen gradually relaxed and put down the string in his heart.

Maybe he was right. Sun Jiao didn't want to plot against him.

Otherwise, she has a lot of opportunities to solve me, and there is no need to drag until now... The big stone in Jiang Chen's heart has finally been moved down.

"... since you are my employer, in addition to protecting your life, I feel that I also have an obligation to ensure that you are not deceived by people with ulterior motives. Well... How to say, if someone peeps at your belongings, it's also a kind of trouble for me. In the future, if you trade with others, you'd better take me with you. "

Sun Jiao, who came to the door, suddenly put her head back and said.

is this... Arrogant?

"... don't look at me like that! Grass, my goose bumps are up, cough, "Sun Jiao some flustered away from Jiang Chen's line of sight, dodged to the kitchen, but soon came a startled scream," ah! How, how could it be?
Refrigerator

Most of Jiang Chen's words are false, just to avoid unnecessary trouble and danger.

However, that moment's moving is true.

In such a moment, Jiang Chen accidentally found that this savage woman, is not so annoying... On the contrary, a little cute?

"Don't eat canned food. We'll have fresh food tonight! To celebrate... To celebrate my first employee! " As if to vent the heart that happy mood, Jiang

Chen burst into the kitchen with a laugh.

Standing in front of the refrigerator, sun Jiao even forgot to refute the names of employees. She just looked at the tomatoes and eggs in the refrigerator.

These fresh ingredients were put in by Jiang Chen before she came back.

"You..." Sun Jiao turned her head stiffly and opened her mouth with a dull and trembling voice.

"Don't ask, I know you have a lot of doubts. We'll talk about it at dinner. Now... Um... Can you cut tomatoes? "

Sun Jiao, who had fallen into stagnation, left her in place. With a proud smile on her face, Jiang Chen went to the refrigerator and took out some tomatoes and eggs.

"Tonight, we have scrambled eggs with tomatoes!"

Chapter 5

The reason why it's scrambled eggs with tomatoes is that Jiang Chen's cooking skills are just like that. The only thing that can be done is this dish that is cooked every day.

If you have money, maybe it's time to hire a nanny for yourself?

But random Jiang Chen shook his head secretly. His secret was too shocking and worldly. It was inconvenient to ask a nanny to take care of himself.

Let's find a girlfriend.

Thinking of the several kilograms of gold bars discarded in the living room, Jiang Chen could not help but flash a smile of pride.

Sun Jiao with a stomach full of doubts, stiff cut tomatoes, looking at the red juice that exudes an attractive aroma, she did not know how many times it was the spitting.

Since Jiang Chen said that she would tell her at the dinner table, she would not be in a hurry for a while. Sun Jiao cuts the tomato silently, and unconsciously peeks at Jiang Chen, who is stirring eggs on one side. She felt a little flustered with a smile of happiness.

"Be gentle... You're the rhythm of chopping the boards together..."

"ah, oh." Jiang Chen's voice scared sun Jiao away from her eyes. When aware of her abnormal performance, her heart inexplicably rose a sense of anger and shame. However... After the anger and shame, there is a little bit of happiness.

Happiness? What a distant word...

seems to go back to living in a shelter.

Sun Jiao vaguely remembers that when she was very young, the gate of the refuge had not been unlocked. Now think about it, there is simply paradise.

There is no crime, no class, and the order is regulated by the head of the brain. All people finish their duties equally and enjoy reasonable resources. Because there is no conflict of interest, everyone is kind and everyone is happy. Although people occasionally miss the distant blue sky, no one goes back to doubt that they are happy.

Yes, compared with the cruel waste land, 071 is a paradise.

At that time, her parents were still alive, and she had a very lovely sister, only one year younger than her. After the shelter reached the age of opening, they witnessed the first sunlight shining into the cold steel gate.

Then they were separated.

Later, she learned that many mercenary organizations chose those shelters that had just been opened with poor defense facilities. Taking advantage of the remaining conscience of the people who just walked out of the shelter, plundering the survival materials there, plundering the population there... In that riot, she was separated from her relatives.

It was from then on that she gave up all the goodness in her heart and became a qualified "wasteland Survivor".

But I don't know why, at the moment that frozen heart, but began to slightly loose.

Home?

In a trance, sun Jiao had such an illusion. After being aware of her thoughts, she felt inexplicably a little hot on her face.

I'm afraid these two days are the most emotional days in recent years. Sun Jiao shook her head with a bitter smile and put the tomatoes cut according to Jiang Chen's requirements into a bowl.

If you want to suppress the restless mood, you just need to breathe deeply. However, the feeling of touching the soft part of her heart can't be buried in any case...

maybe sun Jiao didn't realize that the man standing beside her beating eggs had begun to become a little different in her heart.

Looking at Sun Jiao's swallowing, Jiang Chen could not help but smile. He is the first time to see someone can eat tomato scrambled eggs so creative.

"I know you have a lot of questions in your mind, such as why I have so much food." Jiang Chen put down the dishes and chopsticks, looked at Sun Jiao and said quietly.

"I don't know how to describe this feeling," Sun Jiao gradually stopped eating, put down her chopsticks, and looked at Jiang Chen's eyes full of confusion. "You give me a feeling... It's like a person coming out of a fairy tale."

"Pooh, fairy tale?" Jiang Chen is stupid.

"Some of the pre war books, in the sanctuary, we call them fairy tales." Sun Jiao sighed and laughed at herself. "Everyone lives a happy life with family, friends and even lovers. But it's all fairy tales, right? After all, I was seven years old when I first touched the sun."

Jiang Chen was speechless, but went to the refrigerator, took out a few cans of beer, and looked back at Sun Jiao with a smile.

"We have a drink when we feel tired."

Sun Jiao picked up the beer, raised her head and poured it fiercely. Her throat gave out a satisfied voice.

"Burp - it means it's not as good as coke."

"But it can let people vent. It's a good thing on the whole." Jiang Chen also poured a mouthful of beer.

How long have you been drinking? That seems to be the case after graduation. A person came to a strange city, entered a strange company, and then endured the pressure of work, the burden of life, until now was dismissed. In the ivory tower, I have made countless dreams, which are crushed by the reality mercilessly.

To be honest, the moment he received the dismissal notice, he was really upset.

At least in this end of life, someone can drink with themselves... This is not too bad.

After chatting for a while, they finally became good friends and held hands.

group number: 482875504. To know why the male and female guests hold hands, let's see the Dao version of the small theater below.

(the little theater of the author and his good friend He Xie in the X years of the Anti Japanese War, the extermination of the devils continued, and everyone was in danger. In the occupied area, the devils are domineering, and outside the occupied area there are also agents sent by them.

One day, he Er Gouzi, who had been away from the village for many years, came back suddenly with a mink coat, looking very rich.

He Xie found his good friend and pulled him to have a drink with him.

He Xie: Lao Chen, you see, we haven't seen each other for many years. I heard that you have 800 years old wine in your house. Why don't you take it out and have a few drinks?

Author Jun: Lao he, you are joking. Now you are the red man in front of the prince. Where can you look at our small places.

He Xie's eyes stare: what kind of red man? This is for the benefit of my father and fellow villagers.

Jun: you said so.

He Xie: no nonsense, just take it out.

The author, without a word, went back to his room, took out the 800 year old wine and put it on the table.

He Xie poured the wine, took a sip, and frowned: how can this wine be so sour and astringent that the color is also mixed tightly.

Author Jun wryly smile: there are two bottles of good wine, this bottle has some urine.

He Xie's eyes glared and he took a mouthful. He said angrily: you are tired of living. For the sake of friendship between you and me, I will give you a chance to present another bottle.

The author was silent for a moment: one bottle of this wine was taken by the local king in the mountain stronghold. The other bottle of wine was pitiful to me, but he didn't take it. He rewarded me as a family heirloom. If brother he insists on, he can go to the local king's stronghold to get it.

He Xie smelled the speech, but he laughed, and sat back awkwardly: the king of earth paid tribute to the prince, and could not move. The two kings also wore the Star Spangled Banner, and the village was built in the United States.

After saying that, he Xie suddenly cast a glance in his eyes: since the king has left you a bottle of heirloom, why did you, the unfilial son and son, take a piss in this wine?

The author Jun miserably laughs: good wine, but cannot give too Jun, ginseng urine, helpless move.

He Xie angrily drinks: bold! I'm doing it for your own good. Do you know how many shots were shot yesterday? 404 people!

The author sighed and did not look to thank him, but to the ancestors placed on the wall.
